EX-SOLDIER VICTIM OF SAD ACCIDENT

Anxious Friends Who Sought Him Since War Closed Hear of Misfortune.

Charley Kelly, who before the war worked for E. T. Lindley at the Sonoma Feed Store and who after his discharge from an Atlantic army camp could not be located by Sonoma friends, has written at last and his letter tells of a recent accident in which he lost both legs.

The terrible misfortune occurred in Pennsylvania where the young ex-soldier was working on a railroad. In an accident on his run he was so terribly mutilated that both legs had to be amputated at the hospital. Kelly writes that he is slowly recovering after seven months suffering.

Mr. Lindley, who befriended him while here was shocked at the news and is making arrangements for the unfortunate ex-soldier and former employee to come West, take vocational training and fit himself for a position with the firm.

Mr. Lindley had written to the Army authorities and to Congressman Lea to try to locate Kelly after he was discharged from a Virginia cantonment. All trace of him was lost until the above news came direct from Kelly himself.

CHURCH NOTICE

The Rev. Wm. S. Short of Santa Rosa, will conduct a Christmas service eof Holy Communion sermon and carols at Trinity Church, Sonoma on St. Stephen's Day, Monday, Dec. 26, at 10.30 a. m. All members and friends will be welcome.

The American La France Engine Co., presented Chief Cause with an elegant new Chief's fire cap, an exact duplicate of Chief Murphy's of San Francisco fire department. It is a beauty.

There will be a family reunion at the Peterson home on Patton street over the week end, Will Peterson and family of Richmond being here for the Christmas celebration.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES MONDAY AT TRINITY

Sonoma's Episcopal church will hold Christmas services Monday morning at 10:30 at Trinity with Rev. Mr. Short of Santa Rosa in the pulpit. A number of baptisms will take place that day.

The impressive Christmas services will undoubtedly be well attended.

NEW YEAR CELEBRATION IN SONOMA VALLEY

Many Gala Events Are Scheduled at Sonoma Valley Resorts to Welcome Young 1922.

Sonoma Valley is to give a right merry welcome to the coming new year and many dances and gay parties are scheduled for New Year's eve.

The American Legion boys of the Valley of the Moon Post will give a big masquerade ball at Union Hall next Saturday night. They have a reputation for the finest dances ever given here so the crowds will be there to celebrate with them in the gay whirl of confetti, serpentine and famous jazz music from Oakland.

Pancrazi's will give one of their always jolly dances and this is an unusual ball, with the promise of many novelties and a fine raviola supper at midnight.

Mine host Corcoran of the Agua Caliente Springs Hotel is to have a regular party, too, with amusements for old as well as young and a cabaret supper to start at 11 p. m. There will be dancing, story telling and entertainment. Many city folks have made reservations for the New Year week end at Mr. Corcoran's hotel.

The Tavern at Verano announces a big night with Precita Parlor, N. S. G. W. band to make things merry and play for dancing. J. Campbell, saxophone; Red McCafferty, trombone; J. Sullivan, violin; W. Sullivan, saxophone; George Walker, drums and Joe Fitzgerald, piano, will assure the last word in jazz while the Four Melody Maids will render the latest song numbers. Free lunch will be served between dances. Everyone is invited to be guests of Mr. Parente New Year's eve at Verano.

UNION CHRISTMAS SERVICES

By special arrangement, a union Christmas service of the Congregational and Methodist church, will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Methodist Church.

There will be appropriate music and a sermon by Rev. Isaac Cookman on a theme appropriate to the day.

The evening service will be in the Congregational church, with Christmas music rendered by a combination choir of both churches and a sermon by Rev. Mr. Crowe, pastor of the M. E. Church.

Sam Ganas of the Sonoma Valley restaurant is going to put up a six thousand dollar addition to his presen tbuilding at Boyes.

BIRTH OF CALIFORNIA

When they finished paving heaven
With the streets of purest gold,
They had a lot left over,
Is the story that is told.

So the white wings they got busy
And swept it in the sky,
And it fell upon the western shore,
As the earth went spinning by.

It turned to gold the mountains,
Made the climate heavenly, too,
And oranges that had been green
Took on a golden hue.

They called it California,
I don't know the reason why—but
If you want a taste of heaven
Come on out before you die.

THE TURKEY MARKET

According to reports received on Wednesday by Harry S. Maddox, chief of the Division of Markets of the State Department of Agriculture, the turkey market is not as stable as conditions would seem to warrant.

While outside buyers are offering from 47 1-2 to 50c a pound f. o. b. shipping point, the commission men here report that the high retail price necessarily following this top price to the producer is not meeting with the favor of the consumer and the birds are moving very slowly.

Consequently it is the opinion of those wise in the ways of the local market that there is but little justification for any further boosting of the price and that turkeys will not move freely in this market if there is any further increase.

M. E. LADIES HAVE SALE

A Christmas food sale is in progress today at the M. E. Church rooms where many good "eats" are being disposed of by the Methodist ladies for the benefit of the church.

The Moebes place at Baxterville is reported sold.

Stewart Potter, University student has been ill at the college infirmary.

Miss Zolita Bates is home from the College of the Pacific for the holidays

Mrs. Tony Cereghino and Mrs. E. E. Steiger motored up to Santa Rosa Tuesday where they spent the day.

There will be a family reunion at the Chance home over the holidays.

Prizes, spotlight dances, imported jazz music. American Legion Mask Ball, Sonoma, New Year's eve.

FLOWERY SCHOOL CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS

Generous Patrons of District Created Fund and Gave the Pupils a Jolly Time.

Through the efforts of the public-spirited and generous hearted folks of the Flowery School District the children there had a wonderful Christmas at the school house Wednesday night. A big tree laden with gifts and candy was prepared and a program of Christmas recitations and songs arranged by Miss King and Miss Howard, the teachers. The Halls have not been east since their wedding trip some years ago and now have their two interesting little ones to introduce to Mr. Halls' folks there.

A family reunion at the hospitable old Hyde home will be presided over by Henry Hyde and wife this New Years.' Mr. and Mrs. Hyde have entered prominently in the social and civic life of Sonoma Valley since their return here and with their young man son are identified with many of the community's leading activities,

"Duffy" Lewis, the new manager of the Salt Lake B. B. C. has returned from the East. "Duffy" has signed up some good material for his club. Success to you "Duffy."

Bob Liaros, the barber, has recovered from his recent illness and is now again on the job of shaving people.

J. Brand of Glen Ellen, who has been critically ill at the Mary Jesse Hospital, Santa Rosa, is said to be improving.

Mrs. Henry Norrbom of El Verano who has been indisposed with a severe attack of rheumatism is now improving.

Attorney Harold Weise, is up at the handsome home of his parents above Glen Ellen for the holidays.

NEW FARM FOR WOMEN HAS GOATS

The Industrial Farm for Women at Buena Vista has put in a herd of Toggenberg goats on the property, according to Miss Englehart, the woman farmer of the institution. The inmates will be taught the management of the herds and also will go in for rabbit and poultry raising under Miss Engleharts instruction.

COURT CASES

For obtaining credit upon false pretenses from the Broadway Service Station a salesman named Barrios of Stockton was sentenced to 30 days in jail with probation until January 1st. The amount involved was $20.

Robert Partridge was fined $10 for driving his car with the muffler open. Speed Cop Albertson made the pinch, the third in a month.

CARTER WINS CASE

Judge Lester Small yesterday rendered a decision in the case of W. W. Carter vs. M. Goodman. The case was decided in favor of Mr. Carter, the court holding that under the terms of the real estate contract he was entitled to the commission of $220. Interest of $9.70 and costs of $8.80 were also assessed to the defendant, Goodman. Judge Easten represented the plaintiff.

JAMES RIGONI KILLED BY ESCAPING GAS

James Rigoni, aged 45, of this place, was found dead in his bed Thursday at the home of a friend with whom he was visiting at 3858 Twenty-Fourth street, San Francisco. Gas was found escaping from a leaky fixture. An investigation proved that Rigoni's death was accidental.

FAKE REVENUE OFFICER ARRESTED

Bert Brown Taken Into Custody While Trying to Put One Over On Wine Man.

While attempting to pose as a revenue man checking up wineries, a fellow named Bert Brown considerably worse for too much liquor, was turned over tothe local constable by L. Quartaroli whom Brown sought to victimize. Quartaroli became suspicious after Brown looked through his wine cellar, demanded to see his reports and then offered to issue a permit for $10 which would enable the wineman to dispose of his stock. He ordered Brown off the place and the latter was met by the constable who placed him under arrest.

When his case came up before Commissioner Fulweider, he was held to answer for impersonating a revenue officer.

Brown is said by the constable to be the same Brown who got in trouble here last year and had his leg broken in a fracas with two local boys.

YOUNG HOLIDAY ARRIVALS

The stork has been delivering the Christmas goods in this vicinity, recent births being recorded in the following families of our fair valley:

Mr. and Mrs Gestro of the Baxter Tract, a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Bassi of Spain street, an eight pound girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Cone of lower Broadway, a baby boy.

Dr. Hays handled the Christmas packages nicely and delivered them in time for Christmas.

THIS CHRISTMAS AND PEACE

THE WORLD has never looked out upon a more perfect Christmas. Christianity has not a finer achievement in all its refining history than can be recorded by those of us of today who have witnessed the triumph over discord and war and the pregnant program for peace recently conceived on American soil at Washington, D. C. What more glorious than the contemplation of humanity with such a code to its credit? What more reassuring to a Christian world long striving for the heights upon which present day statesmen have at last planted the wondrous standard as a sign to all the world that peace on earth, good will to man, is to breathe and live and shed its benediction down the ages. The spirit of a thousand Christmases has matured and it seems that fruition came quicker than the most sanguine had hoped, quickened by the furnace of war and the chastening influence of suffering and sorrow of those thrust into the crucible. As the spokesman of the great plan for world peace, the Hon. Charles E. Hughes, declared in his opening address at the Disarmament Conference, "the call is not of the United States of America alone, it is rather the spoken word of a war-wearied world struggling for restoration, hungering and thirsting for better relationships of humanity, crying for relief and craving assurance of everlasting peace."

A Christmas which has ushered in, so rich a promise as that which has come out of this Conference merits praise beyond the power of pen.

STRAINING AT A GNAT AND SWALLOWING A CAMEL

IT LOOKS BAD for cizilization's evolution, has a decided negative effect on morale and increases the burden of the taxpaying public to read statistics that "criminal business in the United States District Courts has increased over 800 per cent since 1912." Due to this fact, additional district judges are sought for certain U. S. Courts at an additional cost of $211,200 per annum. In the report on the bill to provide for this urgent need the committee on the Judiciary reported last month to Congress 156,601 cases of all classes pending in the U. S. District Courts and adds that a large proportion of the increase during the past two years in criminal business is due, in the judgment of officials of the Department of Justice to the enforcement of the prohibition act. Of the total criminal business pending in July, 1921, 10,365 were for violations of the national prohibition act. In addition many civil actions growing out of prohibition are also reported.

There was a tme when lawbreakers were the exception and to be mixed up in courts, fined or given a jail sentence was a stigma regardless of the circumstances. Now it is a common thing for people to be classified as criminals and lawbreakers while the inate criminal has a habit of inflicting criminality with more abandon and frequency than ever before. Parole, probation and prohibition are responsible for lots of it, the latter causing the alarming spread of the drug habit, for the weak and abandoned are an easy prey for drug peddlers when other stimulants are cut off. An authority on the drug evil states that there are now 1,000,000 addicts in the United States and that the liquor traffic is a minor evil as compared with the drug habit, which is spreading by leaps and bounds. Sarah Graham Mulhall of New York who fought the narcotic situation for over ten years as an official on the Bureau of Narcotic Drug Suppression of New York City brought out these facts recently while lecturing in Washington, D. C.: "The first drug prosecution in the United States was in 1868," declared Sarah Mulhall. "Now drugs are being peddled in all centers of population, even school children engaging in the traffic of selling drugs, being instigated to do so by illicit drug peddlers." The law of New York requires drug users to be registered in order to secure a prescription. One doctor in New York City wrote 700 prescriptions in one day.

With this terrible condition sweeping the country is it not outrageous, let alone farcical, to drag the country for prohibition violators, to train sleuths on harmless wine possessors, clutter up courts with absurd situations and classify citizens as criminals who have run afoul of laws created by wily theorists of betterment? While narcotics are making dreadful inroads upon our citizenship, we are utilizing energies and finances fighting a monster myth—national drunkeness, which never existed except in the designing minds of propagandists—until now it looms as a real menace with American homes coveting, manufacturing or trafficing in high-powered moonshine or some crude illicit liquor. Junior Americans, too, are learning the rudiments of the illicit liquor game and already confide to young companions the good revenue it yields those who dabble in it. Truly sorry internal conditions are obvious in this great republic of ours. Is it not something which should humiliate every lover of the United States as in contrast we view with pride the splendid international understanding which has just transpired and in which our statesmen are the leaders? Ours is a great nation but decadence from within is something which we must fight and the fight must not be misdirected. Those who concentrate the nation's power against a puny evil while the monster narcotic evil is taking deeper and deeper root are America's most insidious foes. A nation in the talons of narcotics is doomed. John Barleycorn when entrenched in his vilest dugout, was never so pernicious an enemy as the drug fiend. Our America—a paradise—but a paradise lost if we do not call a halt in the present trend of fanaticism and the monster evils follow ing close upon its heels.

STATE DEPARTMENT GIVES REPORTS ON S. F. MARKET

The Division of Markets of the State Department of Agriculture has installed a market report on vegetables, fruits and poultry handled by local dealers. One of the leading news associations of the country in announcing this service to its subscribers states that it marks the first time that newspapers have been able to give to their readers authoritative quotations from the San Francisco markets backed by a neutral official organization.

Not only have the big news gathering associations of the state eagerly welcomed this service, but it has been received with equal favor by the individual papers.

A number of editors in discussing the new service with Harry S. Maddox, chief of the Division of Markets, asserted that having experienced so much difficulty in securing accurate, unbiased market reports they were on the point of deciding that they had encountered an insoluble problem.

The new departure of the Division has been carefully considered for several months and as now planned has been checked against the best available sources of information to insure the utmost accuracy.

The dealers in the products now being reported are co-operating heartily in supplying the requisite information. They agree that such official figures will aid the marketing of farm products to the advantage of all factors concerned in the process.

Each day the report will be headed with a few sentences of comment written for the lay mind so that both consumer and producer may understand the trend of the market, and thereby be able to make profitable use of the price reports.

The service is directly in charge of O. W. Holmes, an experienced market reporter, trained for this sort of work by service with the Bureau of Markets of the United States Departmnet of Agriculture. Besides this official experience Mr. Holmes has been in direct touch with marketing conditions through his connection with various co-operative agricultural associations.

As the Division is able to increase its facilities for market reporting the number of commodities handled in the report will be increased. It is already evident that there is a growing demand for market reports bearing the imprint of official authority.

EL VERANO ITEMS

(Interesting gleanings from El Verano's popular press agent, our old friend, Archibald McKiver)

The writer extends Christmas greetings to all readers.

Chas. Lane, well known Glenn Ellenite, was in town the latter part of last week, renewing old acquaintances who were glad to see him.

Joe Parente, well known San Franciscan, accompanied by his family, are here registered at the Parente Villa over the holidays.

Louis Parente, San Francisco fight and wrestling promoter, spent the week end at the Parente Villa.

Mrs. A. Vanucchi is in San Francisco for the holidays.

Rev. Father Byrne, popular Sonoma priest, was in town one day last week, extending Christmas greetings to his friends and parishoners here.

August Marcy, Sonoma's leading plumber, was in town the fore part of the week visiting patrons and friends.

Mrs. Seawell of Sonoma passed through here last Saturday enroute for a visit with friends in Oakland.

Willy VanRaan is busy this week at the Parente Villa with a number of students, who are bent on learning to be real farmers. Under Bill's supervision are Misky Walker, one time famous black face comedian and now a drummer at Parente Villa, who has spoiled his beautiful hands with the cruel pruning shears. Joe Fitzgerald, another musician of note, is doing fine, but disappears when any hard work is in sight. Elmer Owen is also learning to till the soil and in time Bill hopes to have these and other full fledged farmers under his directions.

Louis Lamotte went to San Francisco the first of the week on business.

A large crowd of sports attended the turkey shoot here Sunday. Mr. Mitchell of Schellville carried off all honors of the day. He made our local crack shots look like novices and none of them are talking or telling what they can do any more after watching this crack sharp shooter perform.

Word has reached here that Emile Mullen, a young El Veranoite, is making good playing ball in San Francisco. Mullen, it is claimed, is getting to be an expert twirler and can play in any position. He is now playing with the Cow Hollow Federals, San Francisco, and it is said will take up professional ball with one of the big teams next season. His many friends wish him luck in the great national game.

Mrs. A. Lavore went to San Francisco Monday morning to do some Christmas shopping.

Jim Baines, well known and popular real estate dealer at Boyes Springs is having the former baseball park at Boyes cut up into lots. Roads are being made and in a short time the valuable property will be sold off in sections. It adjoins the famous Boyes Springs and no doubt when put up for sale will be sold quickly.

Erhart Steiger and Chas. Potter, two well known Schellville sportsmen attended the turkey shoot here on Sunday.

Mrs. Borssoneau of Oakland was here Sunday visiting her brother.

Willie Locarnini, while driving a spirited horse from the barn last week was kicked in the chest and put down and out for the count. He was rushed to Sonoma where Dr. Hayes worked on him and brought him to life again. Willie says it was a hard kick and he will bother no more wild steeds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sloan and Mrs. McConnell motored to Santa Rosa Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Reynolds have gone to San Francisco to spend the holidays.

The many frieneds of E. P. Lounibos who passed away at Kenwood last Sunday, were grieved to hear of the sudden death. Lounibos was born here and was well known throughout the valley.

T. H. Baines and L. Kearney were inspecting the oil fields in Napa county last Sunday.

Z. Lane and wife of the old Engler ranch, Sonoma, left here Tuesday morning for Washington, to be gone over the holidays.

Mrs. Chas. McDevitt and family left for Summit, Cal., over the S. P. Tuesday morning. They will enjoy Christmas in the snowy Sierras.

Great interest is being taken here by sport lovers in the story appearing in the San Francisco Bulletin written by our old friend, Tim McGraph, one of the greatest trainers and managers of boxers the world has ever known. McGraph is to write of the old time gladiators who in those fighting days fought for honor and because they liked the game. It is interesting to read of these champions of olden days, as those of today are mostly cheese champions out for the coin and helpless with the gloves.

The Misses Morelli, two charming young ladies from San Francisco, were here Sunday visiting friends and in the afternoon joined Bruce Weatherhead and party on a red berry hike in the western foothills. The girls think there is no place like Sonoma Valley.

R. Lichtenberg of Boyes Springs and party were in town Tuesday looking up members to join the new golf club at the Bigelow place. One hundred bucks a throw.

The Millerick Brothers, two bronco busters from Schellville, passed through town Tuesday. Many of our natives took to the woods, not knowing what was coming under all the hat. Do they make 'em any bigger, Tom?

Chas. Childs and family, accompanied by Mrs. F. Kenny of San Francisco, are in town for the holidays.

Miss Nellie O'Brien was a San Francisco visitor Monday.

All records were broken in fishdom circles Sunday when John Larsen pulled in from Napa Junction with a fourteen pound striped bass. It was a pretty fish and was admired by our natives.

Mrs. C. Hinze of Agua Caliente went to San Francisco Monday for a short preholiday visit with her children who are up at the mountain ranch now, having come up for Christmas.

SONOMA High School Chronicle

Vol. 1 SONOMA, CALIFORNIA No. 6

This column will be devoted to High School news, edited and written weekly by the students of the Sonoma Valley Union High School.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

On Thursday evening, Dec. 22, the high school students entertained their parents in a royal manner at the Womans Club House. The program consisted of orchestra numbers appropriate to Christmas, boys and girls Glee Club numbers, also appropriate to Christmas and two delightful plays one entitled Too Much Salt and the other Pajamas. The entire student body was present and about 70 of the parents. The hall was beautifully decorated and in addition there was a large Christmas tree also beautifully decorated. The tree contained presents, none exceeding 25c in value which the pupils of the school gave to each other. It was arranged by lot that every boy and girl of the school receive one gift. Refreshments the kind you enjoy at Christmastide, were served. Dancing lasted until 12:30 p. m.

Mr. Stenquist and Miss Rolfe departed for Los Angeles Thursday evening. Miss Worthorst left for Fresno on Friday. The other teachers will spend their holidays locally.

On Friday, Dec. 16, Sonoma played a practice game with Napa in the Union Hall. Both games were hot as everyone expected them to be. The 130 pound team won more easily than was expected. The score was 38 to 15 in our favor. The score for the unlimited at the end of the last quarter was 19 and 19. We played five minutes longer and at the end of that time the score was 25 to 22 in favor of Napa.

A Christmas Poem

Each little service rendered
Each little kindness done,
Will help and cheer that someone,
Like the rising of the sun.
That suns bright rays will enter
Into your inmost soul,
And glory and beautify you,
As Eden was of old.
Taste not the fruits of selfishness,
From off the Tree of Life,
For tasting, we oft times forget
Our brothers toil and strife.
So let the joy of Christmas,
Within our hearts hold sway,
And not forget our Savior,
Born for us this day.
Who died that we might live
And the ancient proverb fan,
That holy sentence, Peace on earth
Good will toward every man.

Hazel Tapscott.

COST OF UPPER VALLEY HIGHWAY RIGHTS-OF-WAY

The board of arbitrators on the Schellville-Santa Rosa state highway from the Rincon Valley school corner across the Austin and other lands to the head of Los Guillicos Valley has completed its labors and the awards have been accepted by property owners, according to Wallace L. Ware, president of the chamber of commerce. The report has not yet been filed with the supervisors.

The arbitrators named by the superior judges are Frank M. Burris of Sonoma, Harry L. Hall of Santa Rosa, and Robert Potter Hill of Eldridge. The various amounts awarded are as follows:

Brown	$5000
Brand, Mrs.	1775
Burgers	4250
Brand, Fred	3650
Flora, Ely	1200
Weeks, Mary	1200
Austin, et al	450
Georges	1000
Hefty	2500
Cassini	1750
Neva Hood	2310
Austin, H.	50
Total	$25,135

The new route will give a straightaway for two miles, eliminating the many present turns and twists in the road via Melitta and at the same time reducing the distance to be traveled and through the agreement to arbitrate much delay has been avoided.

Mrs. Harry Fuller (Eva Church) attended the Christmas afternoon at the Woman's Club here last week with her sister, Mrs. Fred Schell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fetters are making substantial improvements at their big resort, Fetters Springs. They are building a handsome annex to take care of their employees.

EMIL LOUNIBOS PASSES AWAY AT KENWOOD

Emil Lounibos, old Sonoma boy and son of the late J. P. Lounibos, pioneer of this valley, died at his home near Kenwood Sunday. The death was sudden and Coroner Phillips was called to hold an inquest. The verdict of the coroners jury was death from tuberculosis.

Paul Emil Lounibos was 45 years of age, a native of this state. He is survived by a brother, John B. Lounibos, Jr., and a sister, Mrs. Henry Chauvet of Glen Ellen.

The funeral took place Tuesday from St. Francis Church, with interment in the family plot at Mountain cemetery.

Mrs. Paul Robin and sons motored to Port Costa Sunday to visit Mrs. Estes. They made the trip in the Ford car recently purchased by young Eugene.

TEACHER RECOVERS FROM CAPITAL OPERATION

Mrs. Carrie Dependender, prominent educator and for many years teacher at the Huichica School, has recovered from a recent serious operation performed at Lane Hospital, San Francisco, and is now convalescing at the home of her brother, Walter Gaines in San Francisco.

For three weeks past her condition had been very serious and her Sonoma relatives and many friends were exceedingly anxious over the outcome. Word comes now from San Francisco that she is fast regaining her strength and that she is anxious to resume her educational work among the young pupils of the Vineburg District where she is highly regarded by all.

Mrs. Dependender is a sister of Mrs. George Breitenbach of this place.

PART OF CALIENTE SPRINGS PROPERTY SOLD

The site of the original Agua Caliente Springs Hotel including The Lark club house has been sold to Sam Carlo for a price said to be in the neighborhood of $18,000.

The property runs from the county road almost to the tracks of the Northwestern Pacific and is improved with several cottages.

It is a historic part of Sonoma Valley and was once the home of General Fighting Joe Hooker.

Carlo is the well known boxer and sporting promoter.

COMPLIMENTS OUR CHRISTMAS EDITION

Santa Rosa, Cal., Dec. 12, 1921.

Editors Index-Tribune,
Sonoma, Cal.

My Dear Murphys:—

Your Christmas issue of last Saturday was a cracker-jack and reflected the advance spirit of the New Sonoma. You have my hearty congratulations and I wish you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Sincerely yours,
W. W. HILL.

CLUB REPORT

An interesting and delightful afternoon was given on Friday, Dec. 16, at the Woman's Club. After necessary business was attended to, Miss Burt took charge of the program. She read The Origin of Christmas, so interesting to the many listeners. The High School Glee Club gave two beautiful seclections—Holy Night, so apropos of the season and Noel, so devotional and inspiring, was not forgotten by Mrs. Emparan. The symbolical tree was loaded with gifts and created much interest as packages were opened and names of donors read. Santa Claus was generous and many thanks were expressed by our President. A neat cash donation was received from many present. Many members being absent were not heard from, but the season is still open to receive some useful gift. Mrs. Amelia Bates served most delicious coffee and home made cookies. A very noticeable feature was the special decoration of Mrs. Stearns portrait, the first president and organizer of the club 20 years ago.

A card party will be given Jan. 6th for the benefit of the club house. Show the good spirit by attending.

Six new names were admitted to membership:

Miss Rolph.
Miss Worthorst.
Miss B. Aguillon.
Miss G. McGimsey.
Mrs. R. Bean.
Mrs. R. Vella.

L. V. EMPARAN,

LESSON OF THE GOOD FARMER

There is one essential in all economic life. It is a lesson taught us primarily by the good farmer. The wise producer does not consume or waste or sell all of his products. He keeps his best seed for the next year's planting and if there is any doubt about his needs for the winter he maintains a surplus against misfortune or untoward circumstances.

The trouble or one trouble with the people of the United States during the fat years of the war and immediately succeeding was that they spent all of their earnings or most of them in riotous living. As this term comes from the Bible it is apparent that human nature has not changed very much in six thousand years.

It is no exaggeration to say that during the war in any city hundreds of young men spent from $10 to $20 for silk shirts and these particular evidences of extravagance are now rarely seen.

If the entire country has observed as faithfully a nationwide money saving program from 1917 to January 1, 1921, as it observed food saving under Mr. Hoover's direction in 1917 and 1918 there would be little or no complaint of hard times and close money. —Manufacturer.

EVERETT SPRAGUE WINS HONORS

Everett Sprague, son of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Sprague, formerly of this place, has won the highest Boy Scout honors in Alameda. He is the first Alameda boy to become an Eagle Scout. Here is what the San Francisco Examiner had to say about it:

"Passing twenty-one necessary tests, covering a period of one year and five months, Everett Sprague, of Alameda has attained the distinction of being the first Eagle Scout in the Boy Scout organization of the city.

In 1918 young Sprague joined the Boy Scouts in Texas. The latter part of that year he came to Alameda to live. His ambition was to become an Eagle Scout and he persevered, taking one test after another until last week he was awarded the honor. The tests which were necessary were as follows: First aid, swimming, life saving, personal health, athletics, interpreting, electricity, public health scholarship, cooking, firemanship, first aid to animals, craftsmanship in wood, bird study, pioneering, pathfinding, civics, carpentry, machinery, safety first and camping.

Everett Sprague is a student at the Alameda High School and joined the Scouts in Texas during the war while his father was stationed at Fort Sam Houston.

CONGRESSMAN LEA AS POSSIBILITY FOR GOVERNOR

Edward H. Hamilton, the noted political forecaster in writing of the present gubernatorial situation in California and available timber for the next election comes out strong for former Senator Phelan and quotes a leading paper of Ukiah which mentions Congressman Clarence F. Lea as a possibility for the governorship.

This is not the first time Lea has been mentioned and his wide acquaintanceship in the big district he represents would make him a formidable candidate. His record at Washington has been a splendid one. He is the type of man the present voter wants and his ideas of economy attune with the average tax payer's pocketbook.

The politicians may not pick Congressman Lea to run, but the people of the State of California could not have a better man in the governor's chair at Sacramento if he would hearken to the call of many loyal backers throughout the state.

Congressman Lea devotes himself to his work in Washington with zeal and is on the job many hours a day at the national capitol where he has won prestige and is an authority on many big issues, but nothing is closer to his heart than California and its every interest, which is a reason why he might consider the call to make the governor's race. A man nationally informed, in his political prime and having the financial and industrial interest of the state really at heart, Clarence Lea would make California a governor of which she could well be proud.

SEBASTIANI WIRES FROM NEW YORK ILLUMINATE XMAS EVE

Sam Sebastiani, who has been in New York for the past three weks on important business, expects to be home in time for Christmas, but lest he should not reach here in time, he has wired from New York, asking that the streets in his residence tract be illuminated for Christmas eve. their entire length. Sebastiani installed electroliers and other illuminations at his own expense and the westerly portion of Sonoma presents a brilliant sight on occasions when the public spirited property owner turns on the lights.
